APPLICATION FOR DAVID W. DENENBERG TO APPEAR PRO HAC VICE

1. This application is being made for case no. 2:09-cv-00219-TJW, styled Adjustacam LLC v. Amazon.com, Inc., et. al.

2. The applicant, David W. Denenberg, is a member of the firm Davidoff Malito & Hutcher, LLP, which represents defendants Systemax, Inc, CompUSA.com, Inc., and TigerDirect, Inc.

3. Mr. Denenberg was admitted to practice in New York in December 1988 and in New Jersey in January 1989.

4. Mr. Denenberg is in good standing and is otherwise eligible to practice law before this court.

5. Mr. Denenberg is not currently suspended or disbarred in any other court.

6. Mr. Denenberg has not had an application for admission to practice before another court denied.

7. On September 18, 2006, Mr. Denenberg was suspended from the practice of law for three months in New York after pleading guilty to a violation of New York State Election Law § 17- 122(7), a misdemeanor. Specifically, Mr. Denenberg was charged with carelessly stating on a nominating petition for a local party election that persons signed the petition in front of him, but this was not accurate. (Exhibit A). In short, Mr. Denenberg admitted he was careless when he stated, in a nominating petition for a local party election, that he was present when certain signatures were affixed to the petition. He learned after the petition was submitted that this was not accurate. Mr. Denenberg pled guilty to an election law violation, a misdemeanor, and was sentenced to two mandatory court surcharges and a conditional discharge.

Based upon his conviction, the New York disciplinary authorities brought a proceeding. The hearing panel, who heard the disciplinary case, recommended to the Appellate Division, First Department, that Mr. Denenberg be censured. This recommendation was based upon the fact that his misconduct involved carelessness and not intentional conduct. The hearing panel also considered extraordinary mitigation evidence, including character evidence and significant public service. The disciplinary prosecutor also recommended to the court that Mr. Denenberg be censured. Inexplicably, the Appellate Division issued a three-month suspension. (Exhibit A).

At the time of his suspension, Mr. Denenberg was admitted in New York, New Jersey, numerous federal courts and the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”). New Jersey did not suspend Mr. Denenberg. (Exhibit B). Each of the other courts suspended Mr. Denenberg based on the New York suspension for the concurrent period of time and automatically reinstated Mr. Denenberg when the New York suspension was completed. The USPTO and the District Court of Colorado required a formal application which was submitted.

8. Mr. Denenberg has not been disciplined by a court or Bar Association or committee thereof that would reflect unfavorably upon applicant's conduct, competency or fitness as a member of the Bar.

9. Mr. Denenberg has had no other criminal charges, arrests or convictions for criminal offenses filed against him.

10. There are no pending grievances or criminal matters pending against Mr. Denenberg.

11. Mr. Denenberg has been admitted to practice in the following courts:

- a. United States District Courts:
 - (i) Eastern District of New York;
 - (ii) Southern District of New York;
 - (iii) District of New Jersey; and
 - (iv) District of Colorado;
- b. United States Court of Federal Claims; and
- c. United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

12. Mr. Denenberg has read and will comply with the Local Rules of the Eastern District of Texas, including Rule AT-3, the "Standards of Practice to be Observed by Attorneys."

13. Mr. Denenberg includes the requisite $100 fee (Local Rule AT-1(d)).

14. Mr. Denenberg understands that he is being admitted for the limited purpose of appearing in the case specified above only.

APPLICATION OATH:

I, David W. Denenberg, do solemnly swear that the above information is true; that I will discharge the duties of attorney and counselor of this court faithfully; that I will demean myself uprightly under the law and the highest ethics of our profession; and that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States.
